Policies & Procedures:

Peggy reports that the bank account now maintains a balance of $100. The paperwork to claim funds of ~$600 from an old bank account, was received on 7/8/14 and can take up to 180 days to process.

Round Table:

- Darby shared his thoughts our NNO event, for which the goal was to build community and promote safety throughout our neighborhood. The ice cream social theme was fun for all and Grocery Outlet is owed a big "Thank You" for providing the ice cream and supplies. The event also provided an opportunity to start a neighborhood Fantasy Football League. The evening concluded with Chief Hahn, the Police Dept., McGruff and Fire Station 1 going above and beyond to support our event by offering rides to the neighborhood kids & parents in various public safety vehicles. Over all, it was a success! However, something to think about for next years' event...be on the lookout for people who don't belong or who are making for an uncomfortable situation. Two attendees (man, woman) at this years' event were making conversation with other neighbors that seemed a little off-putting and out of context. Instead of being neighborly, they seemed to want to promote their own agenda of being anti-City of Roseville. While they may be members of the community, we don't provide a forum to spread their negativity.

- Hillcrests' Quarterly Community Meeting is coming up on Nov 12th and there was some discussion about possible topics & guest speakers. Bill is going to try and find contact info for the person who RCONA recommended to speak regarding Identity Protection. Andrea will contact Officer David Flood to see if he'd be willing to come out and speak at one of our meetings regarding the local transient population. Darby suggested having no guest speaker and instead, having more of a holiday potluck gathering. Peggy is going to look into what rooms are available at Cirby Elementary because the library, which we've used in the past, has a food restriction.
- Bill mentioned that RCONA would like to know if Hillcrest would like to contribute to an online newsletter. We've not made a definite commitment yet, but Lisa offered to look into it since she maintains our newsletter.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 7:30 PM.
